REPORT

OF THE

SUPERINTENDENT OF COMMON SCHOOLS.

To the Honorable the Board of Supervisors
Of the City and County of San Francisco:

GENTLEMEN: In accordance with law, I have the honor to submit herewith the Thirty-sixth Annual Report of the Superintendent of Common Schools in the City and County of San Francisco, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1889.

Were it of any avail we would make an extended report, setting out the virtues and the defects that are noticeable in our Public Schools. Our observation, however, both as a teacher in our schools and in the Superintendency thereof, has led us to the inference that it is almost, if not altogether, useless to do more than merely present a statement of the more important statistics of the Department. Considerations of economy, therefore, as well as the fact that suggestions made in previous reports, seem to have had little if any good results, induce me to present simply the following as prepared by Mr. George Beanston, Secretary of the Board of Education.

NEW SCHOOL HOUSES.

The following named school houses were completed during the year:

LOBOS AVENUE PRIMARY SCHOOL,

Situated on First avenue, near Point Lobos avenue, on the lot belonging to the City known as the "Academy of Science's Lot." This is a two-story frame building, and contains six class-rooms. It was erected by G. W. Hansbrough, contractor, under the supervision of Thos. J. Welsh, architect. The contract price was $14,400; extra work on yards, $485; architect's fees, $742.25; total cost, $15,627.25. The Lobos Avenue School, which formerly occupied rented rooms on Point Lobos avenue, was transferred into the new building on August 13, 1888, and the building was dedicated by appropriate exercises on September 19, 1888. The school now contains six classes, and is under the direction of Miss E. Goldsmith as Principal, who has had charge of the school since its organization in September, 1877.

HERMANN STREET PRIMARY SCHOOL,

Situated on the corner of Hermann and Fillmore streets. It is a two-story frame building, with basement. The original plans provided for eight rooms, leaving the basement for a play-room. It was built by J. H. McKay, contractor, under the direction of Thos. J. Welsh, architect. The contract price was $19,650; architect's fees, $987.50; total cost, $20,637.50. On October 22, 1888, a new school was opened in the building, with eight classes, under the charge of Mrs. N A. Wood as Principal. Subsequently it was found that the accommodations in the building were not sufficient for the rapidly increasing neighborhood, and four additional rooms were made in the basement by F. A. Williams, contractor, under the supervision of Mr. Welsh, architect. The contract price for the additional work was $3,207; architect's fees, $162.85; total cost of improvements, $3,369.85. The cost of the building as it now stands is $24,007.85

CLAY STREET PRIMARY SCHOOL,

Situated on Clay street, between Walnut and Laurel streets. This is a one story frame building, containing four class-rooms. It was erected by Messrs. Brennan Bros., contractors, under the supervision of Thos. J. Welsh, architect. The contract price was $6,750; extra work, $115; architect's fees, $337.50; total cost, $7,202.50. A new school, with four classes, was opened in the building January 7, 1889, under the charge of Miss Eliza F. Bartlett as Principal.
